They will also provide basic information such as warning sign, support strategies and basic contact information for their agencies.

Consent & Healthy Boundaries Workshop – RE Commons

Hannah Stampe of Helpmate will be leading an interactive workshop and discussion for the youth about consent and healthy boundaries. Have you ever said yes to something you didn't want to do? How do you say no, even when it's awkward? How can you get clear on your own personal boundaries? Teens can bring any stories, questions, and concerns that they have been having around these topics.
