UUA Common Read (23 Ed) Justice on Earth: People of Faith Working at the Intersections of Race, Class, and Environment, edited by Manish Mishra-Marzetti and Jennifer Nordstrom. At a time when racial justice, environmental justice, and economic justice are seen as issues competing for time, attention, and resources, Justice on Earth explores the ways in which the three are intertwined. We will consider these issues through reading and discussion. We will discuss pages 1-44 in the first session. The book is available for purchase from Amazon as well as in Sandburg Hall during coffee hour.

Odyssey (S) We invite members of this congregation to know each other. Not just who you've been at UUCA, though that is important. But who are you, and what experiences have made who you are in the world outside of this congregation. Too often we learn the most amazing things about our members at their memorial services. We think that's too late. We want to know more about you now. Join us for Odyssey to listen to and celebrate each other's lives. This month's Odyssey speaker will be Jerry McLellan.

Easter Prep (REC) All Ages are welcome to join in the fun as we prepare for our annual Easter Egg hunt.
